For explanation of "Dombrowski," see: The Colophon 1.4 (Spring 1936), pp. 633-35. Charles M. Underhill's son explains that Clemens gave the nickname "Dombrowski" to his father after a card game where Clemens lost to Underhill. "You're a —— Dombrowski!" alluding to "the arch conspirator and communist leader in the French Revolution...." probably Ladislaus Dombrowski of the French Civil War of 1871, in the news around the time of the card game.
