Guide to the
Ebenezer Sawyer diary
1778-1780
MssCol 2684

Summary
Creator: Sawyer, Ebenezer
Title: Ebenezer Sawyer diary
Date: 1778-1780
Size: .04 linear feet (1 volume)
Abstract: Diary, June 8, 1778 to April 6, 1779, kept on a march from a point forty miles from Berwick, Maine, to Fishkill and West Point, New York, passing through Newmarket, N. H.; Haverhill, Concord, Worcester, and Springfield, Mass.; Simsbury and Kent, Conn. Brief entries for weather, illness, guard duty, etc. Returned via Hartford and Boston. Also shoemaking and merchandise accounts, 1779-1780
Preferred citation: Ebenezer Sawyer diary, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Key Terms
Genre/Physical Characteristic
Accounts
Diaries
Soldiers

Geographic Names
New England -- Description and travel -- 18th century
New England -- History -- Revolution, 1775-1783
United States -- History -- Revolution, 1775-1783 -- Personal narratives

Occupations
Shoemakers

Subjects
Soldiers -- Diaries

Names
Sawyer, Ebenezer