Summary

Creator: Cohen, Aaron, 1936?-1989

Title: Aaron Cohen poems

Date: 1979-1989

Size: .3 linear feet (1 box)

Source: Gift, Rogers, Linda, 1994

Abstract: Aaron Cohen (1936?-1989) was an American dancer, actor, stage manager, and teacher of stage movement and creative writing. He died of AIDS-related causes in 1989. Collection consists of typescripts and computer print-outs of Cohen's poems, many with autograph annotations or inscriptions to his friend Linda Rogers. Poems are largely Cohen's reflections on his personal life including family relationships and his illness and approaching death.

Preferred citation: Aaron Cohen poems, Manuscripts and Archives Division, The New York Public Library

Creator History

Aaron Cohen (1936?-1989) was an American dancer, actor, stage manager, and teacher of stage movement and creative writing. He died of AIDS-related causes in 1989.

Scope and Content Note

Collection consists of typescripts and computer print-outs of Cohen's poems, many with autograph annotations or inscriptions to his friend Linda Rogers. Poems are largely Cohen's reflections on his personal life including family relationships and his illness and approaching death.

Key Terms
Subjects
AIDS (Disease)
American poetry -- 20th century
Gays' writings, American

Occupations
Poets

Names
Cohen, Aaron, 1936?-1989
Rogers, Linda