Creator History

Vincent Persichetti was an American composer, virtuoso pianist, and music teacher. Born in Philadelphia in 1915, Persichetti studied piano, organ, double bass, tuba, conducting, music theory and composition.

There have been few more universally admired twentieth-century American composers than Vincent Persichetti. His contributions have enriched the entire musical literature and his influence as performer... and teacher is immeasurable.

He received his musical education at the Combs College of Music, where he studied composition under Russel King Miller. At the age of twenty, he served as the head of the Combs College theory and composition departments. He also studied conducting at the Curtis Institute with Fritz Reiner, studied piano at the Philadelphia Conservatory with Olga Samaroff, and studied composition with various other important American composers.

He received a Diploma in Conducting from the Curtis Institute and Music Masters and Music Doctorate degrees from the Philadelphia Conservatory.

Persichetti was appointed head of the Philadelphia Conservatory theory and composition departments in 1941, the same year he married pianist Dorothea Flanagan. In 1963, he became the chairman of the Juilliard School of Music composition department. He appeared as guest conductor, lecturer and composer at over 200 universities.

Persichetti composed for nearly every musical medium, and is well known for his wide range of compositional styles.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of noncommercial recordings collected by Vincent Persichetti, most of which are of his own works. Persichetti performs as pianist or conductor in many of the recordings. Most of the chamber music and choral music performances are by student or faculty ensembles from various American universities and conservatories, most notably the Juilliard School in New York, N.Y. Orchestral music recordings include premieres of works commissioned by major American orchestras.

Some composers, other than Persichetti which are represented in this collection are: Carlos Chavez; Aaron Copland; Luigi Dallapiccola; Arthur Foote; Lukas Foss; Charles Ives; George Heussenstamm; Paul Hindemith; Carl Orff; and Richard Wagner.

Some conductors which are represented in the collection are: Alvin Brehm; Dennis Russell Davies; Carlo Maria Giulini; Howard Hanson; Karel Husa; Dorothy Klotzman; Erich Leinsdorf; and Eugene Ormandy.

Arrangement: The collection is arranged into four series: Series I: Persichetti compositions Series II: Persichetti interviews, lectures, speeches, etc. Series III: Compositions by others Series IV: Other material

Container List

Series I: Persichetti compositions, 1947-1986

This series primarily contains recordings of works by Vincent Persichetti. Also included are speeches by Persichetti and interviews with Persichetti which were in the midst of a recording of musical selections. For other recordings of this type, see Series II, Persichetti interviews, lectures, speeches, etc.

Also included in this series are recordings of works by composers other than Persichetti such as Johann Sebastian Bach; Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy; Ludwig van Beethoven; Béla Bartók; Hector Berlioz; Leonard Bernstein; Aaron Copland; John Corigliano; Lukas Foss; Charles Ives; Carl Orff; Francis Poulenc; Arnold Schoenberg; and Igor Stravinsky. These items are located here because they were part of complete performances which included works by Persichetti. For other recordings of this type, see Series III: Compositions by others.

Some of the performers and performing groups featured in this series are: the American Composer's Orchestra; Tamara Brooks; Chicago Symphony Orchestra; Bonita Boyd; Stanley Drucker; Jan De Gaetani; Gregg Smith Singers: Musica Sacra; New York Philharmonic; Dorothea Persichetti; Vincent Persichetti; Philadelphia Orchestra; Sophie Sollberger; Thomas Stacey; Robert Taub; Dylan Thomas; and William Warfield.

Some of the conductors featured in this series are: Alvin Brehm; Dennis Russell Davies; Roy Harris; Karel Husa; Dorothy Hill Klotzman; Howard Hanson; Erich Leinsdorf; Vincent Persichetti; McNeil Robinson and Leopold Stokowski.

A special feature of this series is the presence of performances by many college, conservatory and university performing groups.

This series is arranged alphabetically.
