Biographical Note

In 1964 Tom Dunn founded The Universal Coterie of Pipe Smokers and its publication, The Pipe Smoker's Ephemeris. Dunn published The Pipe Smoker's Ephemeris from his home in Queens, New York until his death in 2005. He worked at the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company until 1991, when he retired in order to care for his aging parents. Active in both pipe smoking and hiking circles, Dunn remained notoriously elusive, private, and humble about his achievements. Dunn's reclusiveness only fueled his status as a cult hero in the pipe smoking community, as members exchanged embellished and often invented stories of rare "sightings."

Membership in The Universal Coterie of Pipe Smokers was folksy and informal. A pipe enthusiast would simply write to Dunn and ask to be put on the mailing list. There was no subscription fee to become a member, nor were there any meetings. Dunn assumed responsibility for all printing and mailing costs, aided by voluntary contributions from members. All 'meetings' between members and Dunn were held through TPSE and correspondence among members. Along with membership came an optional membership pin and a lifetime membership card, designed by Al Mendez.

Correspondence between the editor and members was documented for 40 years and reflects extensive knowledge about pipes and pipe tobacco, tips for cleaning pipes, recipes for tobacco mixtures, where to buy pipes and tobaccos, and information on pipe auctions and with whom to sell and trade. Dunn envisioned The Universal Coterie of Pipe Smokers as a pipe smokers' club that would exist and communicate through the irregular quarterly journal, The Pipe Smoker's Ephemeris (TPSE).

Scope and Content Note

The Universal Coterie of Pipe Smokers papers consist of correspondence between the editor and founder, Tom Dunn, and the members of the Coterie. The collection contains letters, internal organizational documents, receipts, photographs, realia, tobacco and pipe ephemera, business cards, brochures, short stories and poetry submissions, drawings, requests to advertise, floppy disks, CD-ROMs, and catalogs.

Correspondence varies from single letters of inquiry to Tom Dunn to major contributions in the areas of research, thoughts about pipe smoking, personal stories, and artwork. Galleys for TPSE with edits from the authors of special articles were kept alongside correspondence to reflect members' participation in TPSE. Coterian membership cards, designed by Al Mendez, were provided to each member along with a membership number.

Dunn often noted members' donations on the envelopes or letters that he received from "Coterians" as a way of keeping financial records. Although no formal fees were instituted, members would often donate "a pittance," as Dunn called it, to help defray the costs of printing and mailing notices and TPSE.

Tom Dunn replied promptly and personally to each person who contacted him, both accepting new members and supplying information and contacts to researchers and writers. Dunn kept regular correspondence with several members, namely: Bob Barnett, Mark Beale, John Bognar, Steven Da Gama, L.C. Dobbins (author and creator of the Hoosier Hot Line), Rich Esserman, John Haloftis, Bob Levi, Dan Locklair, John McGahen, Al Mendez, Ben Rapaport, Eugene B. Umberger, Henry Zecher, Louis Zisholz, and Arizona Zipper.

Other noted contents include descriptive price lists from R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, 1931 and 1933, and other tobacco companies, excerpts from local and regional journals and newspapers, an exhibition catalog on "The Twelve Months of Tobacco", by Kentucky Painter Toss Chandler, and cigar bands and lithographs from early 20th century Mexico.

Arrangement Note

Tom Dunn kept intact records preferring alphabetical order and reverse chronological order. To preserve original order, reverse chronological order was kept. To preserve Dunn's original filing system, noted members or members with whom he corresponded frequently were given their own folders. Correspondence with other members was divided into sections in alphabetical order. As in Dunn's system, these folders were labeled according to the first name in the folder but continue alphabetically until the next section begins. Correspondence spans between the years 1961-2005.
