

Surveys of materials by or relating to prominent individuals

D-F

Surveys list all of the materials (which we happen to have located) by or relating to a specific individual throughout the Division's collections. Surveys have been compiled in a variety of formats and to different levels of detail. At minimum a survey provides the names of the collections containing correspondence or other material by or about an individual.

Surveys are not guides to complete collections of an individual's papers. The materials listed are, in most cases, not filed or shelved together, but are scattered throughout the Division's collections.

The surveys are not comprehensive: they are meant to serve as a time-saving device. Researchers are encouraged to check the guides to other collections that may prove fruitful for their research as the survey files have not been rigorously updated in recent years; researchers are also encouraged to ask Division staff, in person or via mssref@nypl.org, for reference assistance.

To request material listed in a survey it will usually be necessary to consult the guides to the collections listed in order to identify the box number or volumes that contain the material by or relating to the subject of the survey. Some finding aids are available on the Division's website, but many are only available in paper format in the division's reading room. Division staff will be able to assist readers translate the information in a survey into a request for material.

In many cases the surveys were compiled in order to complete a microfilm order of all the material by or relating to an individual. In these cases copies of the microfilm (or paper copies made from film) can be ordered.

This file contains surveys for the following individuals:

Harkness Collection, no. 8

Narrative of General Arnold's Expedition to Quebec, drawn up by Genl'
Dearborn in the year 1816. 23p.

1st. vol.1) Sept. 10, 1775-July 16, 1776, 40 folio pages. The only one not in Dearborn's hand, although corrected in a score of places by him. Now in Boston Public Library. Was purchased by them in the 1878 sale of the library of John W. Thornton, executor of the will of Henry A.S. Dearborn, the son of Henry Dearborn. The original of this has never been located.

This journal was first published in the Proceedings of the Mass. Historical Society, second series, vol. II(1885-86). The editor, Judge Mellen Chamberlain, added no historical footnotes, but did indicate the corrections made in Dearborn's hand. The journal was reprinted from the above Proceedings in the Magazine of History, vol. XXXIV (1928), number 3, extra no. 135. Kenneth Roberts published it again in his March to Quebec (N.Y. 1938), with a few notes.

- 2) Second journal¹ dates from July 25, 1776-Dec. 4, 1777, and fills 15 folio pages, numbered in continuation of the first journal, with which it is bound. Also owned by Boston Public Library and was purchased with the first one. Also published by Judge Chamberlain, without notes, in the Proceedings of the Mass. Historical Soc., second series, vol. III(1886-87).
- 3) Third journal, is contained in a notebook of 144 octavo pages.. The first five pages, comprising copies of Congressional resolves relating to the army, and the last seventy pages containing accounts, receipts, and songs. (Not printed in the Peckham edition) The actual diary is 69 pages long, covering period from Dec. 5, 1777-June 16, 1779. It was printed in the above Proceedings, with an error in the final date of the heading. The manuscript belongs to the Boston Public Library.
- 4) The fourth journal is in the possession of the Mass. Historical Society through the gift of Charles P. Greenough, who had owned it for many years. He may have obtained it from John S. Fogg, who is reported to have had ~~had~~ it in 1879. Mr. Fogg probably acquired it at the Thornton sale in 1878. The journal covers eighty octavo pages and dates from June 17, - Oct. 25, 1779. While it was in the hands of Mr. Greenough it was published in the Journals of the Military Expedition of Major General John Sullivan against the Six Nations of Indians ...edited by Frederick Cook in 1887. There the journal was annotated with seven footnotes credited to General John S. Clark.
- Emmet 5) The unpublished fifth journal, covers the war from Oct. 28, 1779-Dec. 10, 1781. The original manuscript, in the possession of the New York Public Library, fills 99 octavo pages. It was acquired as part of the Dr. Thomas Addis Emmet Collection in 1896. Dr. Emmet purchased the diary at the Thornton sale in 1878. Henry A.S. Dearborn made a copy of journals three four and five, the manuscript of which is also in the N.Y. Public Library.
- 6) The last journal is eighteen octavo pages long, with a few additional pages of oaths, accounts and memoranda of little importance. The manuscript is in the Boston Public Library with the first three Dearborn journals and was printed without notes in the Proceedings of the Mass. Historical Soc. with journals two and three. Its entries date from June 20, 1782-June 18, 1783, bringing to a close Dearborn's military service of ~~nearly~~ eight years.

All above are printed in: Revolutionary War Journals of Henry Dearborn, 1775-1783, edited by Lloyd A. Brown and Howard H. Peckham from the original manuscripts. With a biographical essay by Hermon Dunlap Smith. The Caxton Club, Chicago, 1929.
